PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

BRYCE DOXZON

Mark your calendars and make your plans! The second annual Maryland Tams Swap Meet is on for September 26, 1992 at Emanuel United Methodist Church in Catonsville...same site as last year... exit 13 off the Baltimore Beltway... The event will start off with a short business meeting at 12:00 noon, followed by the swap meet to run until 5:00 PM. Members desiring but who have not reserved individual tables should contact me or secretary Jan Pugliese ASAP. With your support this swap meet can be as great as last years! (N.B.: The church will be running a bake and crafts sale on the parking lot that morning, so parking on the lot will be somewhat limited.)

I recently returned from the ANA convention in Orlando where I, along with Bill Lenz and Greg Ruby, promoted next year's ANA convention in Baltimore. As that convention draws closer, we can expect to be called upon for such support and assistance at the registration desk. I encourage all of you to support the local ANA convention committee so that we can make the 1993 convention as splendid as the one in 1985! (Another N.B.: I hope to secure a Maryland TAMS meeting during the ANA convention like we had in 1985.)

The meeting after the swap meet will be set for the Suburban Washington/Baltimore show on November 7 at 12:00 noon. No date or place has been set for our winter meeting, but stay tuned. Those details should be ready in time for the next JOURNAL.

See you at the swap meet...

FROM YOUR EDITOR

....WITH TONGUE IN CHEEK!

Another election year and again I can find no political tokens! Whatever happened to the good old days when every national election generated a pocketful of tokens? I guess numismatist don't have much to say when it comes to politics... or is it that tokens cost too much and political buttons and bumper stickers are more affordable... which might substantiate the claims of many that what we need is CHANGE... and I don't mean pocket change, but rather political change! Now don't get in a fuzzy... this could mean either candidate. BUSH says we need to change Congress and CLINTON says we need to change the Presidency. So take your choice.

But I say we exonumists should vote for the candidate that issues a token or at least the most interesting and widest variety of exonumia. (Are bumper stickers exonumia?) Just imagine what the politicians could come up with to win the votes of exonumists...

BUSH: token bucks which carry the promise of whatever it is that you need that he can buy or promise to get your vote.

CLINTON: Econo tokens which can be traded for debits against the national debt.

BUSH: Savings & Loan tokens which could be used to help pay the great debts resulting from the deregulation of the Savings & Loans.

BUSH: transparent tokens...giveaway money that the government doesn't have! (Issued to those whose votes he hopes to buy).

CLINTON: Hi-value tokens which guarantee a high number draw in case the draft returns.

BUSH Religious Right tokens to bring good luck, blessed by both Jerry Falwell and Pat Robertson.

CLINTON: tokens Good For one free legal consultation with Hillary.

BUSH BAWDY HOUSE tokens to reenforce family values (Clinton might have his own version of these!).

BUSH: Disaster Relief tokens "good only in election years".

TOUGH TALK tokens with Pat Buchanan on the "tails" side and Bush on the "heads" side.

Or better yet how 'bout a token "Good for one TRILLION BUCKS", only four of them would pay off our national debt!..(another name for a dream token).

Regardless of tokens be sure to get out and VOTE! It's your duty..and if you see any political tokens write it up and send it to you editor. May God have mercy on all exonumists!

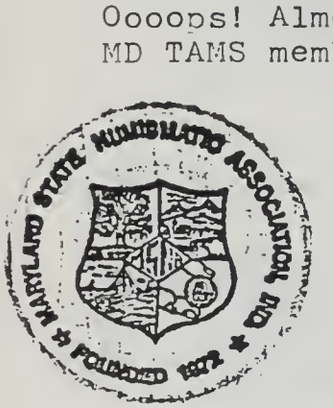
MSNA & MD TAMS '92 SOUVENIRS

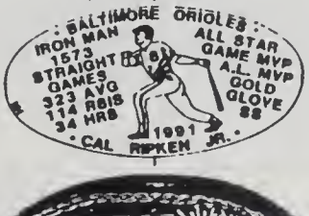
BY MILLARD W. HAJEK LM#1

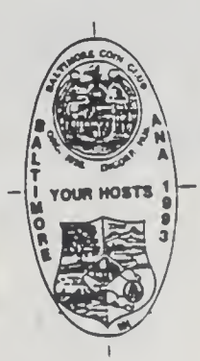
If you missed attending the MSNA Coin Show and our MD TAMS Annual Meeting, you passed up a great opportunity to add some free souvenirs to your collection. Of course you missed receiving the Md TAMS Annual Give-Away which was a serially numbered Charge Coin and the group of elongateds which abounded at the show and the MD TAMS Meeting. Dot & Mill Hajek handed out their new elongated "storecard" and a rolled quarter from Flint, Michigan to all in attendance, compliments of Ray Dillard. Mill Hajek also offered for sale at 50¢ each a newly designed elongated featuring the new baseball stadium and his Cal Ripken Jr. elongated. Bill lenz passed out an elongated cent which will be passed out at the ANA show in Orlando, Florida to help advertise the 1993 ANA show in Baltimore. MD TAMS members had the opportunity to sign up for a special badge using the design and rolled on a quarter with a limited edition of 102.

The MSNA Show elongated available free to anyone attending the show featured Fort McHenry. Ray Dillard rolled these elongateds on the bourse floor and you could pick up your show souvenir there. As you registered at the door, you received a complimentary wooden nickel from MSNA. And, if you attended that super Educational Forum, you received an elongated silver quarter with the Fort McHenry design. This special limited edition was only for those who attended the Educational Forum, compliments of MSNA.

So, what a weekend to capture free souvenirs of the MSNA and MD TAMS Annual Meeting to add to your collection. All of these souvenirs are illustrated below with the exception of the MD TAMS GIVE-AWAY which is featured elsewhere in the MD TAMS Journal. Oooops! Almost forgot to mention the personal card I received from MD TAMS member, David Doernberg.







THE WASHINGTON MONUMENT AND SOME OF ITS LOTTERY TICKETS

By: Russ Sears

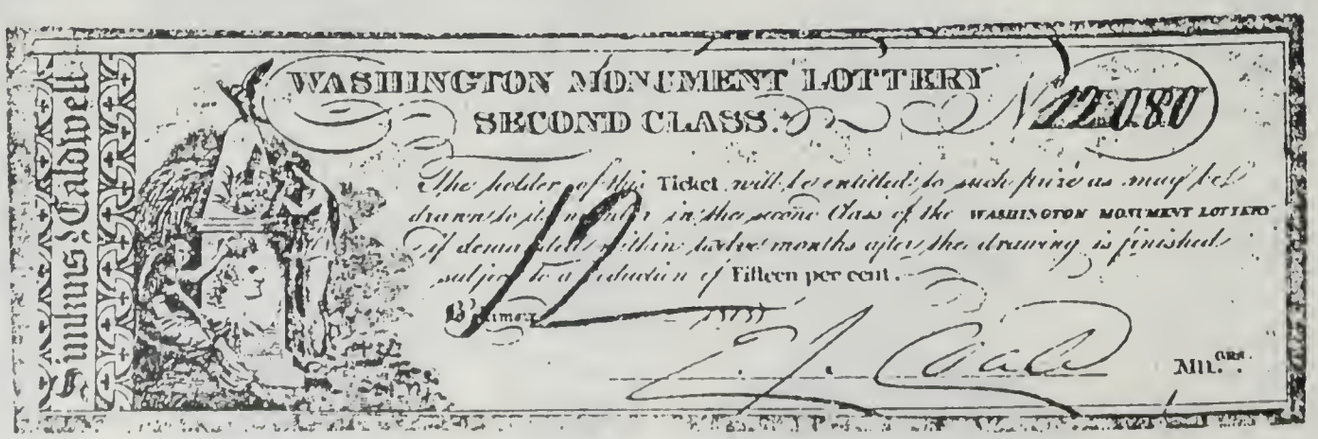
Among its many firsts, Baltimore built the first monument in memory of General/President George Washington. In 1809, the Maryland Legislature authorized the raising of $ 100,000 to build the monument. A lottery was included in the authorization. During that time in history, lotteries raised money for many purposes including roads, canals, universities, and even churches.

The monument was to be constructed at what is now the corner of Calvert and Fayette Streets, but the War of 1812 delayed construction. With the War of 1812 recently finished and because of concern of local citizens that the high column of the Washington Monument might fall on them, the Battle Monument, in honor of the defenders in the Battle of Baltimore was built on the site.

John Eager Howard, Revolutionary War hero and once Governor of Maryland, offered a wooded part of his estate for the monument. The site was named Mount Vernon Place after George Washington's home, Mount Vernon. On July 4, 1815, the cornerstone was layed. Using marble from Baltimore County donated by General Charles Ridgely of Hampton, stone cutting was done by General William Stewart.

Total height of the monument is 188 feet. On a base 24 feet high and 50 feet square, the doric column is topped by a 16 feet representation of George Washington resigning his commission.

Because raising money was slow, the Washington Monument Lottery operated thru 1824 when the State of Maryland Lottery assisted in the balance of the funding. Finally, on November 25, 1829, the last piece, the bust, was put in place.



The inscription on the monument reads:

Checken Fer Pickers

by WILL MUMFORD
MD TAMS LM-18

More Pickers checks have surfaced ... as seems to be the usual case. A new set of tokens was recently donated to the Ann Arrundell County Historical Society... unfortunately only one set was donated for the society's collection. The tokens were used by Frank S. Fisher who had a strawberry farm in the Piney Grove area which is now called Elvation. His checks are made of brass and all have his initials on the with no periods between the letters FSF

1 - R - 21mm	25 - Oc - 23mm
3 - Sc - 22mm	50 - Sc(4) - 29mm
5 - Sc - 25mm	100 - Sc(8) - 29mm

Another group of checks were turned up by my faithful scout, Jim Boswell. Have you ever heard of Blob's Park? I've gone dancing their with friends for years, but never realized old Maximilian Blob was a truck farmer of the old days and that he used his own picker checks! Sure enough the Bohemian Dance parlor on Max Blob Rd in Jessups, Md. used to be a large truck farm and the following checks were used by Max Blob (M.B. 1883-1969):

1/2B - R - 21mm	5 - Sc - 26mm
1 - R - 21mm	5B - Sc - 23mm
1B - R - 21mm	10 - Sc - 26mm
2 - R - 21mm	10B- Sc - 23mm
21/2 - R - 21mm	20 - Oc - 23mm
3 - R - 21mm	50 - Oc - 23mm
	50B- Oc - 23mm

And Max wasn't the only Blob to use picker checks. Johann (John) Blob also used checks on his truck farm on Dorsey Road. He was born in 1889 and died in 1963. His brass checks were as follows:

1 - R - 22mm	100 - Oc 23mm
50 - Oc - 23mm	500 - Oc - 23mm

This story seems destined to never end!....

CENTENNIAL (SOUVENIR) GOOD FOR TOKENS OF MARYLAND

Bob Gardner, 132 E. Carmans Rd, E. Farmingdale, NY 11735-3838

These are the Centennial (Souvenir) good for tokens that I am aware of for Maryland. I have been only able to locate a total of 11 Communities or Counties that issued this type of token. Five communities in New Jersey issued Centennial good fors, whereas 94 Pennsylvania and 51 New York towns/communities did so. In some instances the tokens were issued in several metals, such as Plymouth, Pa which issued tokens in brass, nickel-silver and in aluminum. Some issues did not show a value on the token, but stated Anniversary Coin, Commemorative Coin, Centennial Coin, Official Coin or Souvenir Coin (or dollar) and these often were accepted in trade in the town issued. So this type of token is included is the listings for other states. To date I have found only one Maryland token of this nature.

BRUNSWICK 1965 BR .50
CHARLES COUNTY 1958 BR .50
FREDERICK
- 1963 Hooker/Meade BR .50
- 1963 Wallace/Early BR .50
- 1963 Jug Bridge BR .50
- 1963 Key Bridge BR .50
  (variety: long and short bomb burst rays)

FREDERICK COUNTY
- 1962 Clara Barton BR .50
- 1962 Dunker Church BR .50
- 1962 Corres. Memor. BR .50
- 1962 Antietam BR .50

FROSTBURG 1962 BR .50
LAUREL 1970 BR. AB .50
LILYPONS 1967 BR .50
ROCKVILLE 1960 BR .50
WESTMINSTER 1964 BR .50
WICOMICO COUNTY 1967 BS OC (Official Coin)
WILLIAMSPORT 1962 BR .50

I would appreciate hearing from anyone who knows of other Maryland towns that have issued a Commemorative or Souvenir good for token that I haven't listed.

The only publication that lists this type is "The Handbook of United States Municipal Trade Currency" by Jean-Guy Cote of Toronto, Canada. Steve Tureen of LaQuinta, CA is long overdue with his book "Souvenir and Commemorative Tokens of the U.S."

TOKEN POTPOURRI

BY MILLARD W. HAJEK LM#1

Dantini The Magnificent

Information for the following article was gleaned from The Sun Papers issued on Monday, August 11, 1986 and Saturday, August 23, 1986.

Dantini, the late Vincent Clerkes, stirs many memories among his friends and admirers of Baltimore. His fan club members recall that Dantini was his own invention, a blending, as he once related, of Dante and Houdini and a good acquaintance of the then Mayor of Baltimore, William Donald Schaefer.

Dantini was a magician hired to entertain patrons at Rose's Peabody Bookstore and Beerstube. When he performed in the dark and dusty Peabody Book Shop, among enough old books and furniture and knick-knacks to fill several attics, he was indeed magnificient! Illuminated by a single spotlight that intensified the whiteness of his long hair and beard, he would speak the words of his act in a monotone touched with a slight foreign accent and the incantation of a true wizard.

When he was in his seventies, Dantini courted a new career as a film maker. He was Baltimore's most popular portrait and character model and paintings of Dantini hang in many Baltimore homes. His film venture "Our Baltimore" lost money, but always optimistic, he said, "Well, it was good publicity."

He is also well remembered in our numismatic community having issued a series of aluminum tokens 32 mm in diameter which are illustrated below. Note that three different marriages exist.
